

THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN

Tuskegee Airmen in training

Tuskegee Airmen in the classroom

They practiced marching in formation

They practiced flying BT-13 trainers

They were very good students

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

Outside for more 'drill and ceremony'

More flight training

After nine months—Graduation Day!

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

P-51 "Mustang"

P-51 "Mustangs" in flight

B-17 "Superfortress"

B-17 "Superfortress" in flight

B-24 'Liberator'

B-24 "Liberator" in flight

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

P-40 "Warhawk" in flight

P-40 'Warhawk' close-up

P-47 "Thunderbolt" in flight

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

P-39 “Airacobra” in flight

Artist's painting of Tuskegee Airmen escorting bombers

Artist's painting of red-tailed P-51 "Mustang"

Student's artwork honoring the Tuskegee Airmen

Courtesy: Jerry R. McRae, Tuskegee, Alabama

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®

NATIONAL MUSEUM
OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®